Freedom of Information Act Information available from Risinghurst and Sandhills Parish Council under the model publication scheme

The Freedom of Information Act 2000 provides members of the public with basic rights of access to certain types of information. The documents are often available through the Parish Council website, inspection by prior arrangement with the Parish Clerk or by requesting copies. Where copies are required there is a charge detailed on the table below, and the Parish Council has 20 days to provide the relevant information.

The supply of documents under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 does not give an individual or organisation the right to re-use the documents in a way that would infringe copyright.

Section 36 of the Act also provides for information to be exempt from disclosure where such information would, or would be likely to inhibit:

- The free and frank provision of advice
- The free and frank exchange of views for the purpose of deliberation
- Would otherwise prejudice, or be likely to prejudice, the effective conduct of business affairs
